Who We Are

Who is providing this notice?

Embassy Bank means Embassy Bank for the Lehigh Valley.

What We Do

How does Embassy Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also maintain other physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information and we limit access to information to those employees for whom access is appropriate.

How does Embassy Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Apply for a loan
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- Provide account information
- Give us your contact information
- We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
- State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing

Definitions

Affiliates: Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Embassy Bank has no affiliates.

Nonaffiliates: Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Embassy Bank does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint Marketing: A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Embassy Bank doesn't jointly market.
